

BREE'S LAW EDUCATION

How to Access the Curriculum

The Bree's Law Education modules are housed on the Alaska Department of Education & Early Development eLearning Classroom. Please note that this is a different platform than the one you access for teacher training. You will need a separate login for the eLearning Classroom.

For questions about the curriculum content, email [REDACTED]@alaska.gov. For help with navigating the eLearning classroom, email [REDACTED]@alaska.gov.

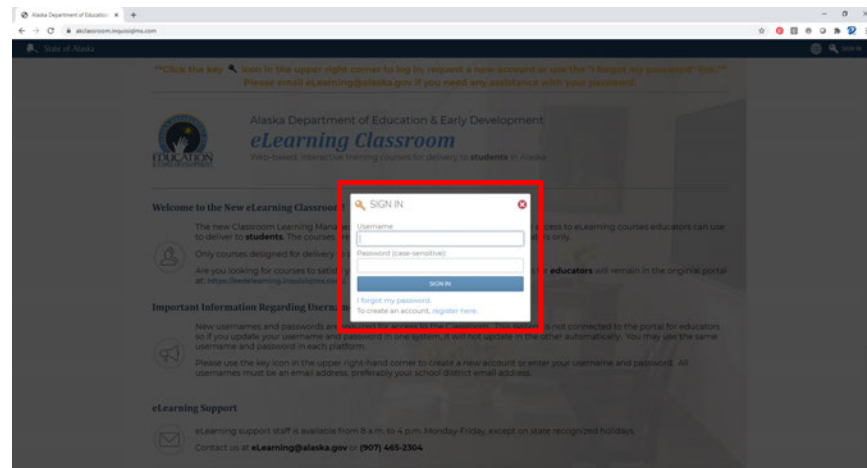

Logging In

To access the curriculum, first log in to the eLearning Classroom using your email address and password set up during registration: akclassroom.inquisiqlms.com.

If you forgot your password, select the "I forgot my password" option in the Sign In box and enter your username, which is your email address. You will receive a temporary password via email.

If you do not have an account in the Classroom, select the Sign In box and press the link to create a new account. Only teachers need an account. Students do NOT need accounts.

If creating a new account, complete the registration form and press New Account at the bottom of the page.

The screenshot shows the 'REGISTER' page of the Alaska Department of Education's eLearning Classroom. The page includes instructions for creating an account and a form with the following fields: First Name, Middle Initial, Last Name, Email, Username, Password, Confirm Password, Local Timezone, Date of Birth, Job Title, School District Employee, School District, School, Non-School District, and Other Organization. A red box highlights the 'New Account' button at the bottom left of the form.

REGISTER

Complete the form fields below to register for an eLearning Classroom account. The eLearning Classroom is for student-facing courses to be delivered to students, not accessed by students. This system is different than the eLearning portal used by teachers to complete mandated trainings.

Please complete the required fields. If you have questions about the Classroom, please contact eLearning@alaska.gov or 465-2304.

Please note that all fields marked with an asterisk (*) are required.

Enrolling

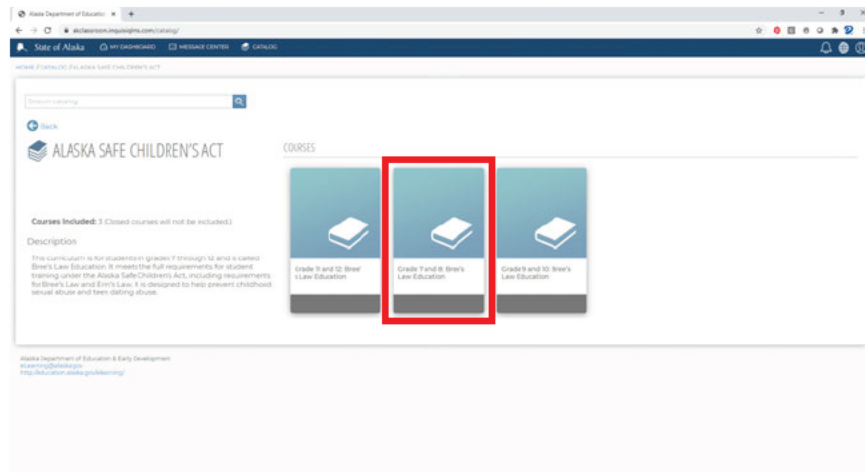

After you are logged in, you will be directed to the Catalog section where you can self-enroll in each grade band of the curriculum.

Follow these steps:

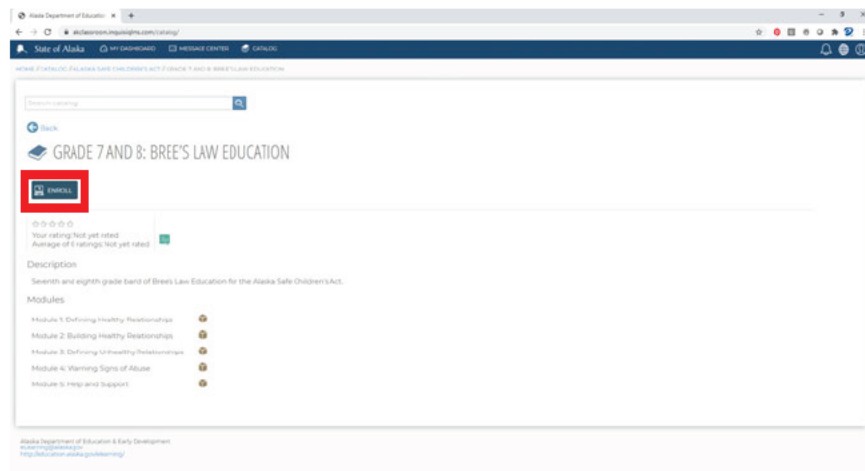

1. Select the Alaska Safe Children's Act catalog

2. Select the Bree's Law Education grade band of your choice

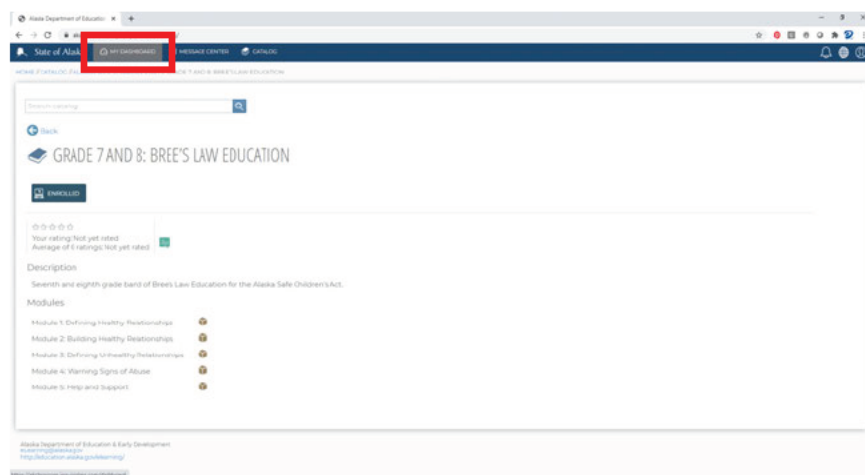

3. Press the Enroll button—this will enroll you in all 5 modules for the grade band you have selected

Launching the Modules

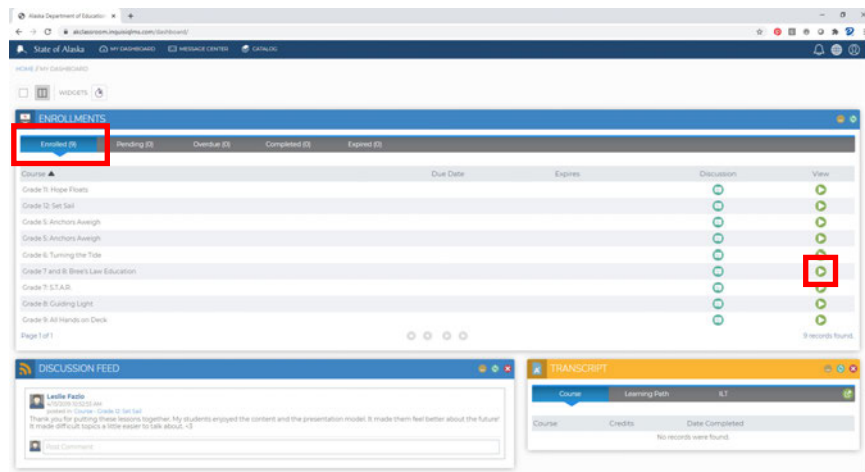

Next, you will learn how to launch the modules to show them to your class.

Go to My Dashboard located at the top of the page.

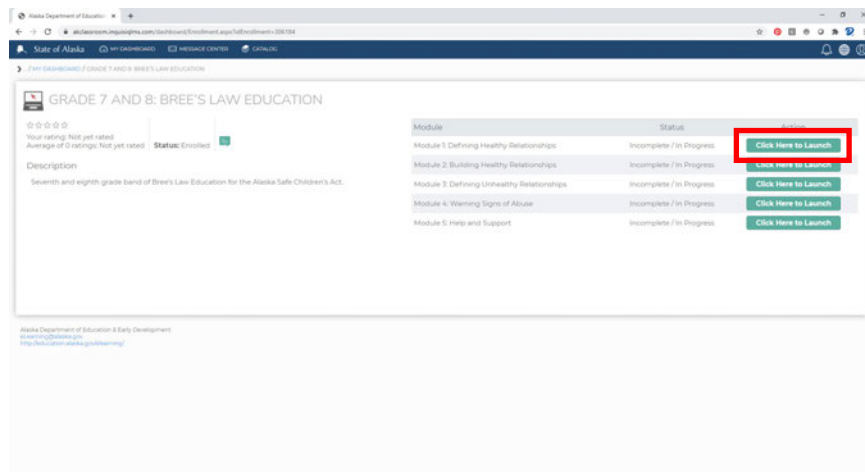

Each grade band will be listed under the Enrolled tab.

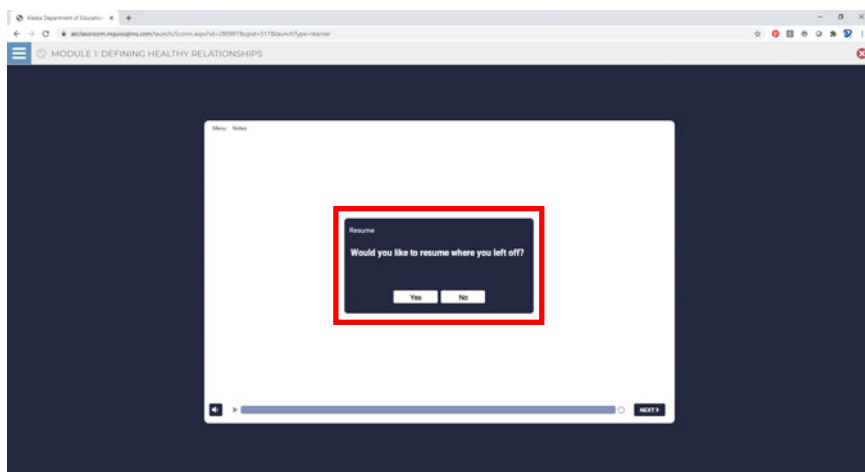

Select the green arrow under View.

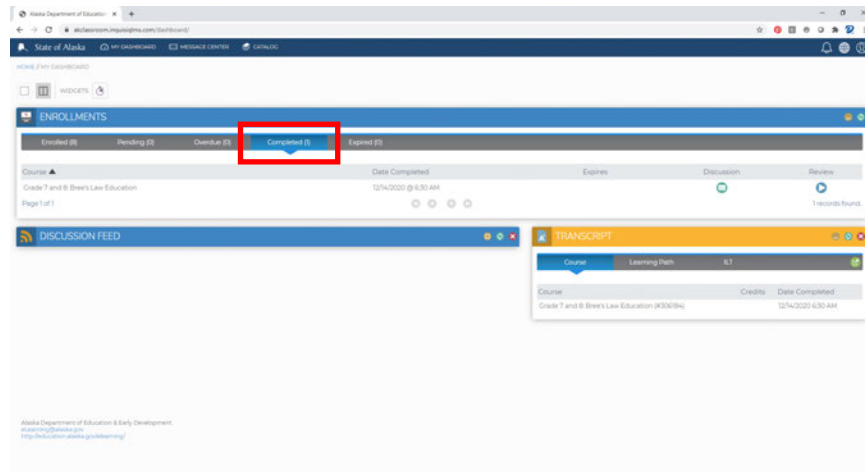

Then select Click Here to Launch.

If you close a module and go back to it later, it will launch with a question: "Would you like to resume where you left off?" To start the module from the beginning, select "No."

After you complete a course, it will disappear from the “Enrolled” tab and move to the “Completed” tab. If you still need to use the course but don’t see it under “Enrolled,” look for it under “Completed” or re-enroll in the course.

Thank You!

Now you are ready to access the Bree’s Law Education modules. And remember, you are not alone. The Alaska Department of Education & Early Development is available to help. We are all working together to keep Alaska students safe and promote healthy relationships.
